

ROTAB SERIES NOW FEATURING A REMOVABLE DRUM

As some catalysts may contain chemical compounds classified as carcinogenic, in such occurrence the fines resulting from the ROTAB test must not be inhaled.

Now the ROTAB drum can be removed from the equipment and opened in a dry box, thus solving the problem. The modification is available to any customer and is brought to the public without any price increase.